Instructions

New Fees Effective July 30, 2007.

Effective July 30, 2007, fees for U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) forms will change. If the instructions on the form state that you must pay a fee, use the table beginning on the next page to find the new fee. The forms and fees are listed in numerical order. To avoid processing delays, please include the correct fee when you file your form with USCIS. If you do not submit the appropriate fee on or after the effective date, we will reject the form. You will need to resubmit the form with the new fee.

Biometric Services Fee

If the form you are filing requires biometric services, you must pay an additional $80.00 fee. This fee is to pay for USCIS to take your fingerprints, and if necessary, your photograph and signature.

See "Biometrics" on this Fee Schedule to determine if you must pay a biometric services fee. If "Yes," read "What Is the Filing Fee" on the instructions of the form you are filing for additional information.

The biometrics fee is in addition to the form's base filing fee and must be paid at the time of filing. Fees for forms and biometric services may be paid by one check or money order, or separate check or money order. Unless otherwise instructed, make the check or money order payable to Department of Homeland Security.

Fee Waiver for Certain Forms

Persons financially unable to pay the base filing fee or required biometric services fee may submit a fee waiver request as described in 8 CFR, section 103.7(c).

You may request a fee waiver on the following forms:

1. I-90, I-751, I-765, I-817, N-300, N-336, N-400, N-470, N-565, N-600, N-600K; and
2. I-290B, if related to an appeal or motion filed with USCIS concerning one of the other fee waiver-eligible forms; and
3. I-485 - only in the case of an alien in T (victims of human trafficking) or U (victims of a violent crime who assist in the prosecution) in lawful nonimmigrant status, an asylee, an approved self-petitioning battered or abused spouse, parent or child of a U.S. citizen or lawful permanent resident; and
4. I-485 - an applicant who does not have to show he or she will not become a public charge for adjustment of status purposes according to section 212(a)(4) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA), as amended.

NOTE: Granting of a fee waiver is at the sole discretion of USCIS.

How Often Do the Fees Change?

The form and biometric fees on the below list are current as of July 30, 2007. However, because USCIS fees change periodically, you can verify if the fees are correct by following one of the steps below:

1. Visit our website at www.uscis.gov, select "Immigration Forms" and check the appropriate fee;
2. Review the Fee Schedule included in your form package, if you called us to request the form; or
3. Telephone our National Customer Service Center at 1-800-375-5283 and ask for the fee information.
